Betty sometimes provided flowers for the front of the church. She loved to care for roses.
Although often quiet, she gave a children's message for Sunday service.
Her humor made her enjoyable to sit next to in church.
She kept that humor, even though in a care facility. Once, after lunch when she saw that the attendant wanted to remove the table cloth at her table, she held on to the edge and had a playful tug-of-cloth with the smiling attendant.

I loved working with Betty at CHI-E. She always had a smile and a helping attitude.
