“ I knew Sandy for many years. Our paths crossed frequently when I served at Ft. Bragg, at Indy, at the Pentagon, and at Ft. Meade, and you were always a steady source of good humor and fun times. It was always great to see you, especially those times when it was directly at the end of an overseas flight. You were always the wizard behind the curtain pulling the levers and making the connections. I'll miss you, and I can't believe you had to die to tell me we shared a birthday! Several years apart, but same day. I always enjoyed dealing with you. I will miss you, my friend, rest in peace knowing knowing you've done your time here and served most honorably.

“ Robin, Michael, and Natalie: I send up prayers to our heavenly Father that you will be consoled in this time of heavy emotional stress and despair. I also ask that God welcome Sandy into His loving arms, where you all shall be with him again one day.

“ I am thankful that the Lord placed Sandy in my life. Even after his retirement, Sandy told me that he was only a phone call away. I am blessed to be able to say that Sandy was my friend. His presence in this earth is truly missed. Robin, you and family have my deepest sympathy.

“ I remember when Sandy, Robin, Gwen and I took a day trip to Nashville, IN and either Robin or Gwen took a photo of Sandy and I from behind, showing our bald heads. I think it was Sandy who captioned it - god gave some men a full head of hair, the rest of us, he made perfect. I haven't seen Sandy a lot lately but I will miss him, his humor and his determination to keep going no matter what was thrown at him.
