“ John and JoEllen. I was so sorry to re read about your mother's passing in the local Greenville, OH paper. Both of your parents "stood up with" my parents when they got married in 1953. Your Dad and my Dad went to school together and worked for railroad. I remember they also exchanged Christmas cards for many, many years. Both of my parents are gone now, too. I hope memories of the good times you all shared will bring you comfort in the future.

“ John and JoEllen, Sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I hadn't seen her since I left Indianapolis nearly eleven years ago. AJ has lived in North Carolina for over ten years and Joanna lives in Greenwood. You'll remember that Glenda and your Mom were pretty good friends. Glenda has been gone for over fifteen years which just doesn't seem possible. Joanna's oldest son died at the age of 21 four years ago. I know from experience that you don't get used to losing a loved one but you simply learn to live with it. We'll keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
