“ Sincere sympathy to the family of Olga Hyde. She was truly a servant with a song in her heart.

“ So thankful to attend church with this precious lady years ago at Bethel in St. Peters, MO. We were blessed to have her sing at our wedding 23 years ago. She will always hold a special place in our hearts. We'll see you on the other side, Sis. Olga! Our prayers and condolences to your family.

“ We have fond memories of Olga Hyde as she worked at World Evangelism Center in St. Louis, Missouri. She was a wonderful Christian lady. Her smile and beautiful songs brought joy to the workplace. She showed all of us a better way of living, with an eye tilted heavenward looking for her Savior's approval as she lived life to the fullest. We pray God's blessings and comfort for her family and friends.

“ As an employee of UPCI, when the headquarters was located in Hazelwood, I have dear memories of Sister Olga singing and praising the Lord as she polished the tile in the stairwell landings to a perfect shine. She also made the most delicious cookies at Christmas time. She gave us all an example of a true Christian lady, with her smile, her singleness-of-heart, and steadfastness throughout her entire life.

“ The year was 1975 and I experienced a whirlwind of blessings> Singing @ General Conference Songfest then eight days in the Urshans home in Indianapolis and there I experienced the "Olga discipline". I'll never forget her voice thundering upstairs and pulling me from subconsciousness to consciousness, "Pauline! the Urshans are on their way and you need to be ready when they get here. You're singing at such and such University Campus". Let me tell you...like a flash, I was up; brushed my teeth (no time for a shower. I learned the art of "Spray and Pray" that day)! Well that was one of my personal encounters with this phenomenal Woman of Worth, Olga Hyde. Her singing voice here on earth, I believe, has placed her on the list of lead singer on Heaven's choir [the league of Mahalia Jackson]! May God rest your soul. You have served well here on earth and gone on to your eternal rest and to receive your reward ~ Pauline (Chenn) Brash
