“ Words cannot express how much we are sorrowed by your passing. My fondest first memory of you when I seen you on fb writing on Britanys wall. I was secretly so happy. Because you are Apostolic and a very sweet young man. We had the pleasure of you with her together for way too short of time! I am still in shock. The explanation I can come up with is the Lord loves you more than all of us and took you home. We really love you and your family. Awesome family! Sweet boy. We will see you again. Comforter I ask you comfort Aaron family with the reassurance of we will know them as they were. Praise God for his mercy to us all!!!! Amen!

“ Brother & Sister Young,

When we first met, Aaron was only about two years old. I remember that blond-haired little boy, so full of exuberance. I don't think you knew it at the time, but one night when you came to our house, Aaron broke a piece of an alabaster box I had purchased at an antique mall not long before that. I was able to glue the piece back, and I still have it on my dresser to this day. Now, when I see the repaired box I will remember with fondness that precious little guy (and the young man he grew into)! Aaron and his brothers have always been respectful and kind to me and my husband.

We love you both, and all of your family. Al & I are praying for you all. May God surround you with his peace and love.

“ Dang, it's always the good ones. Aaron you were a good friend of mine in Highschool, you took me home everyday. You were such a caring and gentle person. I'll never forget just cruising around in the cavalier to riding quads and dirt bikes in your back yard. My hearts heavy with sorrow and you will never be forgotten. Love you brother, God had a special plan for you. You will always be remembered!

“ Aaron I know we werent as close as you and Brittany and I KNOW we werent as close as you and Ashlee but my heart is heavy with sorrow. The more I see/hear about your death the harder it is for me to fight back tears. You were so much fun to hang out with. We have shared so many laughs and good times. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. Silas is gonna miss you.lol. 😊 Fly high Aaron.
🙏❤️ Sending my prayers and condolences to the Young family.

“ Aaron became part of my family in what seemed like over night. The first night he met me he probably thought i was 100% crazy. Later once we got to know each other better he said yes i was crazy but not like he thought. He just knew that there was no way if i made brownies he would touch a corner piece. He also knew i felt like he was one of my kids. I put him to work doing chores and even cooking....fun stuff there. He always ready to help do anything....letting the dogs out to using his muscles to help us move. The kind of kid every parent dreams of having but are known to be rare. Kind polite always happy and sharing the happiness heart full of love. I didn't have the pleasure in knowing him for several years but the few years i knew him i was blessed to have with him. The time he spent with my daughter Ashlee he was so very supportive. Always being goofy to get her to smile. Some may understand the clown in him. Aaron my son from another family you are an awesome guy!! Fly high. Rejoice with your sister and watch over your mom and dad and the rest of your family. When we meet again I'll have the corner piece of brownie just for you. Love you

“ I've known Aaron Young for years. He is both of my younger brothers bestfriend. As there older sister I've always disliked all their friends. But when they both became friends with Aaron something told me I had no worries. I never did! Hes was an amazing young man who jad his head on his shoulders and had the most kind heart id ever seen. Through out the years I've looked to him as another little brother. I joked around with him every time Id seen him and many times asked when he wasn't around. He's became apart of our family and we have all loved him like he was. The day I heard he had past I sat and balled my eyes out. I prayed it wasn't him I begged god to wake me up from this very harsh dream. It still doesn't feel real it doesn't seem that the going man I watched grow with my brothers help them when they needed. Vent to us when life got rough. Help rebuild our house we grew up in. Sleep in tent or his car to help us out. He had a heart of gold and I was absolutely glad that he stuck around and became apart of us. I'm not ready for Friday I'm not ready to watch either of my brothers back down. I'm not ready to admit its real! So with that said fly high Aaron watch over us all please!

“ It's so true..God always takes the good ones too soon.My heart breaks. You were such a great person. So loving and caring. Willing to do anything just to see a smile on my face. The time spent with you was an amazing adventure. So many memories were made and I will cherish them forever. My apologies and prayers are being sent. I love you Aaron, fly high and rest with peace. You will be missed dearly.

“ I am so grateful to have had the chance to meet you and get to know you and my son is heartbroken you was his bestfriend like a brother to him. You always laughed and would do anything to help out, always so polite and respectful. My tiny grandbaby even smiled and laughed everytime you came to hang out with Austin. You have forever changed our lives but my sons more than anyone could ever know. We appreciate you and love you. Fly high sweetheart till we all meet again.

“ Aaron stayed with our family for a short while. He was always respectful and polite. He would always volunteer a helping hand. He was a joy. And he always enjoyed my dinners. No matter how simply prepared. Our family was blessed by his infectious laughter and beautiful personality. But most of all, I am grateful to him for the kindness he showed my daughter Ashlee during a very sensitive time during her life. Though they may not had always agreed with each other, I know he had loved her. And he was an amazing friend to my daughter in law, Brittany. His life has touched us in positive aspects. God bless the Young family with gentle comfort.

“ Aaron was such an amazing person. He gave us so many memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. Steven loved him dearly. He was the one true friend he's ever really had. Our son adores him. I am so thankful that we got to be apart of his life. I hope his parents can take comfort in the fact that they did a wonderful job raising such a sweet, wholehearted person. He truly was one of a kind. He loved his parents with everything and he was so proud of his brothers. He always made sure the memory of his sister lived on. We are so sorry for your loss. Aaron made such a big impact on our lives, as well as so many others.

“ Aaron was the cutest little blonde headed boy, he was rambunctious and full of life. Sometimes when our families got together, I was stuck keeping an eye out for Aaron & my sister Hannah. At the time, I wasn't so happy about it but now I realize that those were really good times!
