

Adam Robert Vest

December 17, 1982 - February 23, 2025

Adam Robert Vest, 42 years of age, from St. Petersburg, Florida, formerly of Fishers, Indiana passed away February 23, 2025. He was born December 17, 1982 in Pensacola, Florida to Thomas Vest and Randy Koehler Vest. Adam was a graduate of Hamilton Southeastern High School and received his bachelor's degree from Ball State University. He was a Verizon Wireless franchise owner before his current self-employment as a founder, owner and operator of Denver Digital, a full service marketing agency based in Denver, Co. His most recent venture was the development of Med Channels, a comprehensive marketing agency for medical practices nationwide.

Adam was a special person with a large personality, and a knack for sales. He had a huge heart and was passionate about everything he did. He loved his dogs, Rocky and Onyx, enjoyed snow skiing, playing tennis, photography, scuba diving, water skiing, golfing, and the beach, and was a lifelong reader and learner. Adam was an entrepreneur at heart who loved computers and sales which gave him his drive to succeed. But most of all he will be remembered by his love and loyalty to his family and friends.

Adam is survived by his wife, Olya Vest; mother, Randy Schneider (Tom); brothers, Clay Schneider, Jay Vest, Luke Vest; and nephews, Eddie Barnaby and Tommy Barnaby. He was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Craig Vest and sister, Amber Barnaby.
