My dear friend Alice had a special grace about the way she lived. Her love of fellowship, and her faith, beamed from her soul. She loved nothing more than to share time with her cat Moses, family and friends. There was not a time when she was not cooking or feeding someone, both spiritually and with her home cooking. Alice loved lighthouses, playing cards, and flowers. Rather than miss her, I will remember her in grace as she lived, and the many times we spent together, supporting one another through the rough patches and celebrating life and laughter.

“ So many happy memories with Alice and David I'm not sure where to start. Singing in the choir at Grace Presbyterian was so much more fun. Time our families spent together at so many church functions, but also the more personal times when we "broke bread" together at the Locke home or at ours. Alice also worked for me for a time as my Administrative Assistant at Ground Round Restaurants. What a great job she did and she was so easy to work with and always willing to go the extra mile. What a blessing Alice was to me and so many others. Gary Gilmore
