I was so very sorry to hear of Angie's passing. Angie and my daughter, Carrie were best friends through their lives. Each one was in the other's wedding. They went to church together for years. Angie was in my second grade and that was where I met Angie and her family. Missy and I became lifetime friends too. Angie was an excellent student and got along with everyone. I was very pleased when she went into teaching, I knew she would be an amazing teacher. I know she will be missed by so many. As a mother I can't imagine what Missy, Robb, Chris and Angie's two boys are going through.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I was Hadley's teacher last year. Angie would volunteer in our classroom every time she was able. She was always, kind, helpful, humble, and cared for others in each moment. She was a gifted teacher and mother. I share my deepest condolences and please let us know if your family needs anything.

“ I too met Angie through our Now Creations meetings. And I had the pleasure of taking care of her dog Lucy during one of her family trips. Angie's light, kindness and wisdom were always very inspiring to me. We exchanged a few cancer buddy emails over the past year. Even when she was going through her cancer hardships she reached out to offer help to me. Her physical presence will be missed, but her energetic presence and love will continue on. My deepest sympathy to Chris and their boys. - Cathy Clark

“ Angie is a bright light whose radiant smile lit up any room she came into. I knew her through her attendance as a student in yoga classes at Source Yoga and the Now Creations study groups. I am saddened that she left behind two sons and a loving husband and yet know that her presence will remain with them always. May they find peace and a knowing that her love lives on in them. “ I remember her shining light, calmness and smile when she walked into the rooms where we would gather together in the ONENESS. The energy she brought in revealed how much she seemed to have got "IT"; a kind of Knowing. How fortunate I have been to be in the presence of that Mighty Soul's light. To be continued...right Angie?
