“ I am sorry that I was unable to attend Anita's service. I knew her well for a brief period of time when I used to babysit. After that I mainly ran across her and Cliff at family events (usually funerals, unfortunately). She was a lovely sweet person.

“ So many memories of times with Anita and Cliff in the Pike township neighborhood of Steve and my first home. Anita was always there to help in anyway she could. She came to sit with Robyn and Bob in the middle of the night when Joey was born the day after Christmas. Just one of many loving memories. May she rest in peace.
