

Ann L. Craft

February 13, 1924 - May 13, 2017

Ann L. Craft,

Ann Louise Craft (Lingenfelter), 93, passed away on May 13, 2017. She was married to Roy A. Craft for 71 years. She attended Howe High School and studied at Butler University.

She worked for Theatre Owners of Indiana and retired after 60 years. She was their Corporate Secretary and General Manager. She was a lobbyist for the Indiana General Assembly for 40 years. During that time, she worked to improve disability access in movie theatres so they were available to families in need to enjoy. She was awarded a Sagamore of the Wabash and Kentucky Colonel for this work and community service.

She was a member of Old Bethel United Methodist Church, Variety International Children's Charity, National Association of Theatre Owners, Indiana Society of Association Executives and Englewood Eastern Star. She enjoyed golf, reading, sewing, knitting, travel, crossword puzzles, weekly bible study and weekly lunch at Longhorn restaurant with friends. But her greatest joy was family gatherings and celebrations.

She was preceded in death by husband, Roy. Survivors: daughter, Nancy Ann Craft Brooke (Gerald); grandchildren, Steve Brooke (Renee), Jason Brooke (Emily), Elizabeth Brooke; great-grandchildren, Zechariah, Noah and Grace Brooke; Clorinda Palmer; sister, Jean Brogan (Robert).

“ I will miss Grandma Ann....oh how I admired her. She was smart, enjoyed life and just so full of spunk. I loved being with her and just sharing conversation. She was a great listener and always had such wise words.

“ Ann was the God Mother for Brad, Casey, and Me throughout our lives. Whenever we needed advise, consolation, or just an attentive ear, Ann was there. Ann and Roy were the closest friends of our parents, Morton and Olga King. And now, I now they are all together again, discussing their children, grand children, and great grand children while playing Euchre or some other excuse to be together in the moment.

Ann we will miss your great counsel, clever wit, and warm smile. To Nancy, please know you and Jerry are in our hearts and thoughts.

Mike and Micky, Brad and Marilyn, and Casey and Debbie.
