The Life of Anna Louise Brouse Wilkerson

Anna Louise Wilkerson was gifted this life on February 10, 1929 to Charles and Susie Brouse. She was raised by her Aunt and Uncle, Margaret and Frank Brouse, on the West Side of Indianapolis. She worked at Indiana Bell until she met and married Albert Clinton Wilkerson, her life mate for 67 years. They were blessed with three Children, Pamela (Ron) Christman, Keith (Sandy) Wilkerson and Jay (Laura) Wilkerson. Anna has a great legacy with a full quiver of 11 grandchildren and 20 Great Grand children, Cory (Sarah) Christman-Finnigan and Brodic, Aaron Wilkerson, Judson (Miranda) Wilkerson-Wyatt and Sophia, Ryan (Kristin) Christman-Abigail and Rachel, Hannah Vanslambrouck-Katy, Gwen and Gabriel, Caleb (Dawn)-Julia, Zechariah, Kenna, Ezra, and Acadia, Theresa (Tim) Thomas-Ruby, Robyn Christman, Jamison Wilkerson-Taquela and Audrey, Clinton Wilkerson-Jaycob, Max Wilkerson-Joseph and Samantha. Anna was also blessed with a sister in law Wanda Richey and many nieces and nephews. Anna and Al were faithful followers of Christ and faithfully served and blessed the work at Englewood Christian Church. Their lives influenced many for Christ. Anna Was very creative and gifted with her hands, she was into all sorts of crafts, and was never without an knitting needle or crochet hook in her hands. She was a stay at home mom who made life an adventure and made sure her children had opportunities to experience a good life. We were blessed with a mom and daddy who loved us and shared Jesus with us.
