

Anne Masropian Kabodian

February 14, 1928 - February 8, 2017

Anne Masropian Kabodian

88, of Fishers, IN, passed away February 8, 2017, joining Christ's heavenly multitude. She was a sweet sparking Valentine, born February 14, 1928 in Guelph, Ontario to the late David and Margaret Kristian Masropian who had both emigrated from Armenia. Anne was a prodigy violinist and soloed as a child with the Toronto Youth Symphony and later played with the Detroit Fiddlers Band and the Livonia Symphony in Michigan. She started in sales early, selling vegetables door-to-door from the family garden. She was a loving homemaker, living in Redford Township and Livonia, MI for 62 years and had worked as a secretary for Lazar Furs, Kaiser-Frazer, RCA, and Livonia Observer. She was the beloved and oldest surviving matriarch of her large Armenian family.

Anne is survived by her daughter, Laurie Jackson (Dr. Jeff Jackson) of Fishers, IN; grandsons, Dr. Ian A. Jackson (Laura) of St. Joseph, MI and Dr. Kyle J. Jackson (Carolyn) of Tyler, TX; great-grandchildren, Clifton and Camryn Jackson (TX), and Esther Jackson (MI), sisters-in-law, Hazel Kabodian, Alice Asadoorian, and Sally (Zorob) Kabodian of Rochester Hills, MI, and 10 nephews and nieces along with their families. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Hrog J. Kabodian and daughter, Janice Kabodian of Livonia, MI, sister (brother-in-law), Louise Davidian (Ralph Davidian) of Livonia, MI, sister, Mae Masropian of Windsor, Ontario, in-laws, Giragos and Annig Kabadian, and brothers-in-law, Zorob Kabodian of Rochester Hills, MI and infant twins Raffi and Paramaz Kadian.

“ I work as a CNA overnights at Meadow Brook where Mrs. Kabodian lived. She was always so sweet and smiling. I loved her upbeat nature and kindness. I was greatly saddened by her sudden passing. I will miss checking in on her and finding her playing solitary on her computer. She will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences.

Sincerely, Carolyn L. Kantz
