“ I worked at the A&P Grocery store at 38th and Emerson when Tony was delivering beer for Farber distributors. I always respected and thought a lot of Tony. He was such a nice guy. I saw him downtown one day and he told me he was doing some dancing with his daughter. He had a friend who also worked for Farber Glen Sherard whom I remember. That was the last time I saw him, what a great guy he was. Tim Owens

“ Dick and Tony met for many years to walk and talk about catching up with what happening in their lives. Dick really enjoyed those times. Sorry for your loss.
