“ We had a connection, you called it being a Gemini...I called it being crazy...I love you and the many crazy nights we shared and interesting food creations you made...You took me out of my comfort zone and provided me memories I'll share in close circles...You created wonderful children who have a desire to help others. They will always be taken care of... You walked into a room and commanded attention, and people listened... Your charm created a vibe, one that we all know and will deeply miss. Now, we continue on, remembering the AUD we love.
