“ We knew him as Auggie, we all worked together in the 80's at Moseley Labs. He was a wonderful funny guy. We all liked working there in the good old days. RIP.

I would often get to visit grandpa at work as a young child. He would always take me into the freezer and I thought it was the coolest thing ever! I had the best grandpa.

“ Although His was a very quiet man, Gus had the Christian boldness to be a greeter at Good Shepherd Methodist Church. I miss him at the southwest door of the church.

He was a very quiet gentle man of few words, but he always had the right words. I miss my grandpa so much and loving greeting with him and grandma.
