“ Barbara was my tutor at Indiana Wesleyan University for a term, when I was an exchange student. She was an amazing teacher, and we stayed in touch for many years. She helped write my thesis with an ocean and half a continent away, and has been an encouragement during the many challenges i faced, especially after our first child was born. With all our house move i sadly lost touch with her a few years ago and it is only bow that we ate heading to the States for a visit and I started looking for her on the internet did i came to realise she is with Jesus. I look forward to seeing her in Heaven ❤️

“ Barb was a caring thoughtful person. She loved the Lord and was a constant reminder of how we should show JOY, Jesus, Others, You. On one of my first visits to her house, she gave me a cup with Joy printed on the side. She said that is how we should live. Jesus First, Others next, Then You. She really lived Joy. This memory of yours is simply theatrics, wanting the world to think Hugh Dotson is a man of integrity. Words mean nothing if your ACTIONS contradict them. Mom would be terribly disappointed in the fact that you have chosen to live for self, self, and more self (at least as it pertains to your interactions with Steve and I) following her change of address. Friends, neighbors, and even family can be deceived, but God knows our heart Hugh, and we cannot hide truth from Him.

I am so sorry to read this. Barbara would always catch up with me and last time she reached out, she was getting married. Since it's been awhile, my intention was to check on her. So sad to read she passed! My grandfather, Fred chambers, was brother to Steve and Sheila's grandfather, Charles chambers. Barbara and my mother, Betty chambers Hickman grew up together. I guess we are 2nd cousins? My condolences to Steve and Sheila

“ Barb grew up with me living across the street! She was always a joy to be around! We reconnected within the last 2 or 3 years and it was still a Joy to see her! She has always been a great person! Jim Hollingsworth

“Barb” was like a second mom to me when I was living in Indiana and spending lots of time with Steve; my roommate Senior year.

She was always so positive, loving and such a sweet lady. She was also incredibly patient as I teased her about playing “pump up the praise” music. I know Steve will remember that. 😊

She will be greatly missed.

“ I have known Barb since our childhood days when our families used to vacation together in Florida. She was a bridesmaid in our wedding in 1968. We were separated by many miles after that wedding, but we still kept in touch. She visited us twice here in Colorado with Loren and Steve and just last year with Hugh. She was truly a great lady...and a wonderful witness for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I am grateful for our years of friendship and memories. Linda Ahlgrim

“ When I moved in next door to Barb in 2001, there was a loaf of homemade bread inside my front door with a note from Barb welcoming us to the neighborhood, one of many kindnesses through the years. She will be very much missed!

“ Barbara was such a great gal to work with on Sunday mornings. When my father died she offered to help me write his obituary. She was a kind and gentle soul. I will miss her. ”
