“ My Aunt Barb always welcomed people into her home with a generosity that let you know you mattered. She was kind and hospitable and had a caring heart. I remember spending lots of holidays at her house when I was growing up. She made special desserts that she knew I liked. Ron and I were very fond of her Thanksgiving pumpkin cake, especially because of its cream cheese icing. Yum! My daughter, Laurel remembers Aunt Barb's spice drop tree that she always displayed at Christmas time. We shared many memorable times together over the years vacationing and just visiting with family. We shared a fun memory one Thanksgiving when Charlie (Ron's boa constrictor) got stuck in the pool table and we used Orrin's gerbil to get him to come out. Charlie was also known to have hidden behind the dryer once when he had gotten loose in the house. Fun times! Obviously, allowing your son to own a pet boa constrictor was a very selfless act in my book! We will miss you dearly Aunt Barb. Until we meet again...
Your loving niece, Barbara Dee
