“ so sorry to read about the loss of someone so dear to all of you, but God's word the Bible does give us hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. Jesus said at John V chapter verses 28 and 29 at the dead will live again.

“ Barb you have been in my life since 7th grade and we have been through good times and bad through these many years always knowing that we could depend on each other. She was a terrific friend, wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother though she was not able to physically be with all of them in the past few years she loved them dearly. She and Glen had a wonderful marriage and he did a great job being her caregiver, best friend and the love of her life. I will miss all the silly things we would laugh about and just knowing she was a phone call away. She is out of pain and with her family in heaven. Love you always.

“ My heartfelt sympathy and deepest condolences to Barb's family! I don't remember her so much from High School, as I was a couple of years older than Barb, but we became very good friends through facebook over the last several years, and found we had much in common. I always enjoyed hearing from Barb and I will miss her deeply! Rest In Peace, Barbara...you've earned it AND your wings!!
