“ Well I'm at work and my eyes are watering! When I lost my grandma, Betty aka grandma came to Rosegate! I couldn't believe how much she reminded me of my own grandma! Her smile, her jokes, her stubbornness, I was taken by her immediately and she was "my" grandma in her own way!! I had to move due to my hubs and getting military orders, but I always sent her care packages and little videos through my old coworker Shandi, we even tried to FaceTime one time, it was so funny how technology got the best of her, BUT that smile made it all worth it!! I will truly miss her and I hope she is flying free and at peace!! Love you grandma!! Fly high with my grandma Rosemary!! ❤️

“ I loved when she was on the cottage at rosegate, we all would call her grandma. She would always sneak up behind me, hug me and then tell me she loved me. I will miss her even more now.

“ when I was 12 years old I was scared of the dark. Betty, to get me over being afraid, took me out back and tied me to a tree and left me an hour or so. Apparantly it work because I was no longer afraid of the dark. Earl

I visited her last in October after she got out of the hospital, she wasn't eating so I started bringing her vanilla milkshakes and having her try to walk..after one walk down the hall she stopped and looked at me and said "you know, I really don't like old people!"...I almost fell over laughing, yes my Mom was still in there somewhere 😊
