“ Betty defined the heart of a nurturing mother. I met her when Charlie was assigned as my first supported employment client at Noble. It was a complete joy working with and serving Charlie and Betty. I loved visiting in the beautifully maintained family home on Oakland. It was a warm and inviting place, and I always felt a sense of comfort and peace when I walked through the front door to visit. Just like the Velveteen Rabbit, that home was real. Perhaps I could be considered her 22nd foster child. I learned so much from Betty's heart of gold and her deep compassion. Warm memories fill my heart of Betty and Charlie. Bits and pieces of them reside within me. May your hearts be filled with His peace that surpasses all understanding. She was a good and faithful servant. With sympathy,
