“ I remember Betty as a dear sweet person. I remember seeing her sitting quietly beside Wade, spending time with him and supporting him as he worked with an adding machine in John and Nancy's dining room in Carmel on a sunny day. We were all there for Molly's baptism which was a happy time for beautiful and lasting memories. Doug and I send our deepest sympathy and prayers to the entire family that god's love and grace may comfort you all at this sad time. Betty was a blessing in all of our lives.
