“ Betty Lynn Ricketts is my mother !she was a stay at home mom and watched over the kids in the neighborhood. Once the younger children were older she went to work at the old Americana jhealth care which is where I worked when I was in nursing school she enjoyed going things for the residents she watched after the residents like she did the kiddos in the neighborhood.. moms quirky little comments will be missed. She is at peace and with dad now and watching over all of her children and grand children
