“ Betty was my intercessor Sister and Best Friend in Christ. We prayed many a powerful prayer and saw the LORD move over and over in answer to our prayers. We laughed together, cried together, got excited about things together and shared movies, and our personal interests as we were from the same generation. Betty loved her grandmother and talked a lot about her happy times @ their farm. We would call to tell each other about something on TV and we would already be watching the same thing. Betty was the most loving, giving, light shining bright for Jesus, powerful prayer warrior and my great friend for many years. She is tucked safely in my heart and she will be greatly missed. She always said she liked my accent because I am from Texas. Betty finished her race and kept the faith. We will see each other again. Until then keep rejoicing with Larry, your Mom and Dad, Grandmother, and your spiritual daughter Debbie. Betty, keep praising & worshipping the LORD with your beautiful voice. I love you Sissy (what I called her)
