

Betty Jean Staton

November 2, 1938 - May 11, 2015

Betty Jean (Burns) Staton, 76, went to be with her Lord on Monday, May 11, 2015. She was born Betty Jean Edington on November 2, 1938 to the late Eugene and Alice Edington. Betty was raised in Indianapolis, and attended Warren Central High School. During her working years she was employed by Home Depot and various professional offices. After living several years in Memphis, IN, Betty moved to the Charleston, SC, low country to be near two of her daughters and their families. She enjoyed being a member of Palmetto Presbyterian Church, Mt. Pleasant, SC. However, she returned to Greenfield, IN, in 2013 to be near her youngest daughter. In addition to her love for her daughters and their families, she always had great love for her four siblings who preceded her in death, Ronald Norman Edington, James Lee Edington, Robert Eugene Edington and Marilyn Sue Edington Thompson.

Betty will be missed by her three daughters who survive her, Christa Jo Parsley (fiancé, John W. Turner), Kathy S. Burns Dorsam (husband, Jerry Dorsam) and Terri Burns Wetherell (husband, Ralph Wetherell). Betty enjoyed her eight grandchildren, Matthew Whitehouse, Adam Whitehouse, Danny Parsley, Andy Parsley, Alex Dorsam, Tayler Dorsam Nodtvedt, Richard Wetherell and Harrison Wetherell. She had four great-grandchildren, Chloe Parsley, Evan Parsley, Noah Parsley and Anne Elliott Nodtvedt.

Betty's family will received relatives and friends Friday, May 15, 2015 from 1:30 p.m. until the time of service at 3:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington

Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.
