

Beverly Nan Riley

March 29, 1932 - October 30, 2008

Beverly Nan Riley, of Indianapolis, went to be with our Lord on October 30, 2008. She was born March 29, 1932 to Orville and Lila Fay Horton Cragg in Kirksville, MO. Beverly graduated from Kirksville High School in 1949 and went on to attend Northeast Missouri State University. She married Loyd Hart Riley on June 18, 1950 in Kirksville. After Loyd graduated from medical school in Kirksville, they moved to Odon, Indiana where Loyd started a family practice. They became members of the First Christian Church in Odon where Beverly was the choir director and soloist for over 25 years. In addition to being a soloist, she was also a gifted seamstress and artist. She and her husband loved to travel and saw much of the United States. She was blessed with many wonderful friends. In 1998 she and her husband moved to Indianapolis, Indiana. They became members of Indian Creek Christian Church. She spent her later years enjoying family and friends. Beverly is survived by her loving husband, Dr. Loyd Riley; sons, Dr. Brad Riley of Granger, IN, and Bruce Riley of Bloomington, IN, and daughter, Pam Riley-Smith of Indianapolis, IN. Beverly was the beloved grandmother of eight grandchildren; and is also survived by one sister, Sandra Beyer of Surprise, AZ. Her sister, Carolyn Troester and her parents preceded her in death. A Memorial Service will be held Saturday, November 1, 2008 at 3:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 E. Thompson Rd., with visitation from 1:00 p.m. until time of service. Memorial contributions may be made to Indian Creek Christian Church, 6430 S. Franklin Rd., Indianapolis,
