Bianca, so many words have been & will be spoken to try and comfort your entire family & all who care for you. For they are all in so much pain without you. You will all be together again. Until then, send down some of the Lords, strength & peace to help them through the many painful & happy days ahead with wonderful memories of your time together here on earth.

God is with you all. Cat , Tina , Amy & Brenda . I know you will all get by as the next few days all seem to mesh as one long , continued stab into that empty hole in your heart that will never be filled. You can only get by with the love & support of each other. And most importantly , your love & support from the Lord. Just remember to ask him for these things, He is always listening. I am sure for a lot of people in these situations they are angry with Him, but He will help no matter how angry we are.

*Sending all my empathy, love & prayers,
Jennifer Soots - Faucett*

I hope I express all my cares in the precious flowers I will make for your precious flower..... Thank You for trusting me in designing them ❤️
