

Brenda Maree Lawson

June 20, 1939 - August 30, 2021

The world has lost a spectacularly bright light this week and finds itself a darker place to be. We lost a most amazing lady, devoted wife, incredible mother, loving grandmother, stupendous great grandmother and unbelievably kind hearted Christian soul. Take good care of her dad, again.

“ We are deeply saddened to lose Brenda as a friend and neighbor. She was a special lady who was a good neighbor and always had a kind word to us and our kids and love to give, especially to the animals. I remember how she would put feeders out for the deer and always loved her dogs (and our dogs too) like they were her best friends. And the dogs knew this and always would run to Brenda to see her and get some love. Boots especially I think Brenda was fond of and she would sometimes call to tell me something about her. I remember once she called to let me know I had cut Boots hair too short. :) Another time Boots was out in the rain and she called to tell me to get her in. I felt guilty but was always glad Brenda had an eye on the dogs and their well-being. We Deis' all lost a friend in Brenda. Our kids all remember Brenda and her many kindness to them, especially the baby raccoons. Sending our thoughts and prayers for comfort to the Lawson family in this difficult time. “ Share a memory? How about 32 years of them? I will treasure all of them because now they're what I have left. You were there for my very first breath. When you left me I wondered, "Who is going to love me like she does?" You made love look so easy. I remember requesting (I'm quite sure very politely and with my manners) that you read this book to me over and over... a few of the lines read, "I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always, as long as I'm living my baby you'll be." I thank God you are living and eternal life with Him in Heaven now. I'll always get to be your baby. I will take care of mom. I'll be there for my brothers and if I ever end up half the mother and grandmother you were I'll know I've made you as proud as you made all of us. I love you forever. Thank you for loving me so completely, no matter what. I am so blessed you were mine.
