

Brett D. Day

August 2, 1963 - April 8, 2020

Brett D. Day,

56, of Noblesville, passed away April 8, 2020. He was born August 2, 1963 in El Paso, TX, to John and Margie Day. Brett was a 1981 graduate of Lawrence North High School. He received his Bachelor's of Applied Science, Automated Manufacturing Degree from ITT and married Pamela A. Theil, February 11, 1994. Brett was employed with Verizon Wireless for 21 years, most recently as a National Account Manager. He will be remembered for his hard work and dedication to his family and will be truly missed by everyone.

Brett was a hardworking man who always pushed himself to do the best that he could. His accomplishments were endless, both in work and his family life. He was a giant of professionalism- a true pro's pro. He will be remembered for his dedication to his family and those around him. He was the best father and husband anyone could've asked for, and wanted nothing but to give his family the world. A proper celebration of life will be held at a later date for those who cannot attend his service.

Visitation will be Saturday, April 11, 2020 from 3:00 p.m. until the time of service at 5:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd.

Brett is survived by his wife of 26 years, Pamela A. Day; daughter, Makenzie M. Day; son, Chase R. Day; mother, Margie Brugh-Day (Pat); and sister, Shawn Day (Karen Stout). Brett's father, John Day, preceded him in death.

“ Brett was my boss for a bit many years ago. He was kind, open and fair. He's the guy who stood up for you when you didn't even know you needed him too. I have and will always be grateful to have had him in my corner. My heartfelt and deepest sympathies to his family. Rest in peace Brett. You are missed.
