Brian Joseph Bigelow

Private services were held Tuesday, May 5, 2026, for Brian Joseph Bigelow, age 58, who passed away April 30, 2026 in Indianapolis.

Brian is survived by his sister and legal guardian, Bobbe Ellen Brown; brother, Joseph Paul Bigelow (wife LuAnn); and special friends, Cindy Twigg and Patty Cooper. His parents, Clifford and Dorothy Bigelow predeceased him, as well as his biological mother, Penny Miller; niece, Kristyn Janene Brown; and nephews, Alex Joseph and Henry Joseph Bigelow.

Brian was employed by Noble Industries for many years, retiring in 2019.

Since that time, he enjoyed playing Bingo, attending sporting events, and Beef and Boards Dinner Theatre where he always looked forward to a huge chocolate sundae for dessert. But his favorite activities were trips to McDonalds for two cheeseburgers and a large diet coke; then to Dollar Tree where he almost always bought sunglasses and a Mountain Dew.

A lover of country music, his favorite artists were Vince Gill, George Strait and Alan Jackson. He was also a huge lover of sports, especially football and basketball.

His wants were simple: new headphones, country CDs, Pacers and Colts sweatshirts, 5-subject notebooks and Bic pens, to name a few. But it was his love for people that made him special.

The family is deeply grateful to New Hope of Indiana for the exceptional care and kindness provided to Brian over the past decade. A special heartfelt thanks goes to Betsy Gorman, Chasity Finley, Cassie Dean, Linda Griffiths, Tina Ezenwelu, Jeff Conte, Miryam Adiho, Ify Mbelu, Jean Driskell, Deanne Langeman, Rob Hampton, Allee Taylor, Jeff and Joanne Alexovich, and countless others. Their support played a vital role in Brian's well-being, enabling him to live a full and meaningful life.

And lastly, sincere gratitude to Compassus Hospice and Shirley Brothers Mortuaries for bringing guidance and comfort during this time.

Donations in Brian's name may be made to New Hope of Indiana, 8450 North Payne Road, Ste. 300, Indianapolis, IN 46268.
