“ I met Brian in 2011 through common friends. We seemed to have a lot in common among the subjects of mutual interest was that I utilized NetSuite in my business. As years went by we conversed about it on and off including getting some contacts for him at NetSuite and eventually he got a job there and relocated to Chicago. Man I though he has some drive he knew what he wanted and he did it! That’s what I know about Brian! He loved his family deeply and his beautiful fiancée. I have never met someone with as much energy, professionalism , sense of humor and being as good a friend as he was. I was honored to be his friend and I am deeply saddened by his leaving us so soon! We will all see him again! Laesch family please accept my condolences. Prayers are with all of you ! Sherina Anderson

“ August 18, 2018. The day we met at Robert A. Black Golf Course in Chicago for 9 holes. I still have the scorecard. A day that changed me forever. I lost my favorite cousin that morning, and as you knew, my son couldn't make golf that day with me. That day, you and I golfed, laughed, shared family stories, found out so many similarities, shared phone numbers and stayed in contact ever since. My heart is forever broken, but I am comforted in your everlasting life. Thank you, for sharing just a piece of it with me. Your friend, Steve

“ My thoughts are with the entire Laesch family as they grieve this loss. Brian was kind, intelligent, loving and fun. I didn't interact with him often, but when I spent time with him in person and on the telephone I always felt that he was a special person. I feel thankful for having the opportunity to have known him.

Could not believe this news. We worked in the same team couple of years ago and have interacted with Brian during office calls. Met him at Suiteworld Conference in LA 2019. Brian was a kind and positive person. Always Smiling. May God give his family, the strength to bear this loss.

- My deepest condolences, Sujata

*To the entire immediate and extended Laesch/Ball family, I am so beyond sorry for the immense loss of Brian. What an amazing person. Every time I had the pleasure of being in his presence, he was SO kind. He always took the time to ask how you were doing, what was going on in your life and, most importantly, listened. He always had a smile on his face and a quick-witted joke or response. He exuded kindness and a warmth that those around him could feel without hesitation. I will always remember how special he made people feel. We miss and love you, Brian!
