

Brinda Kaye Smith

June 29, 1948 - December 2, 2024

Brinda Kaye Smith, 76, of Indianapolis, passed away December 2, 2024. She was born June 29, 1948 in Sayre, Oklahoma to the late William Worth and Alletrys Capitola (Mackey) Lowe. Brinda was a graduate of Mclean High School, TX, and received her associate degree in business administration from Vincennes University. She was a devoted wife to Freddy J. Brinda was a career civil servant and employed with NASA, the USDA, and lastly the Richard Roudebush Veteran's Hospital, retiring to care for her husband during his own battle with cancer.

She cherished being The Nana, the role she was born to play. She loved attending her grandchildren's school and sporting events. She was an avid reader and puzzle solver. If given the opportunity, she would have been a phenomenal detective; her children and grandchildren were always caught. She enjoyed painting and watching Arsenal F.C. “ There are just so many memories I have. She was more than just my aunt she was more like my mom. We shared rooms and stories and went on trips to beaches and canals to watch boats sail by. We had a bond that is sorely missed but a hope of not being forgotten. From her niece Diane
