“ When I met Josh he was a teenager who was shy and quiet, over the years Josh grew into a likeable young man who was not only respectful but kind and sweet. When his grandmother Clara was diagnosed with cancer Josh and I had several talks where I learned that Josh loved his grandmother Clara more than anything. Josh had grown into a strong dependable man who was there when his grandmother Clara and his grandfather Rex needed him the most.
My prayers, thoughts and love are with you and your family.
Rest in Peace Josh and know that you are loved and will be missed.
