“ Randy was one of the first community pastors I met. Truly a man of God, truly concerned for the community, the police and people. A man who for whom it deserves to be said, "Well done, Good and Faithful Servant!"

“ So sorry to lose a friend so soon. Our families enjoyed many get togethers and vacations together. We will surely miss Randy. I know he lived his life to someday be with Jesus, which is where he is now. Someday we all be there with you in the presence of the Lord.
