“ Candy brought joy to all who knew her. I thank God our paths crossed years ago I will treasure the memories and laughs. She had a truly kind heart. She had a way of making everyone feel special. When one thinks of Candy you can't help but think of her beautiful endearing smile. I love you dear friend. Celebrate your new everlasting life.

“ Candy was the sister of my heart. I loved Candy. We were friends since we were 10 years old. I have so many precious memories of Candy. Whenever I go to Gatlinburg I always remember the first time she and I went and stopped at the World's Fair in Knoxville. It broke my heart when she no longer knew who I was when I visited at the nursing home. Easter was the last time I saw her. Rest in peace, dear friend. Love Always, Donna List
