

Carl Eugene Webb

December 7, 1930 - January 18, 2018

Carl Eugene Webb,

87, of Indianapolis, was born December 7, 1930 to Sophronia (Howe) and Vern Webb of Kokomo, Indiana, and departed this life on January 18, 2018.

Carl graduated from Kokomo High School in 1949, served in the U.S. Air Force from 1953-1955, and attended Texas Western College (now known as UTEP). On September 1, 1956, Carl married Helen Irene Loop in Kokomo, and this past September they celebrated 61 years of marriage. In 1958, Carl and Helen joined Englewood Christian Church, where Carl served as a bible school teacher, elder, and a founding volunteer at the Care Center, which was located in IPS School 3, now the home of the Commonwealth Apartments.

Carl worked at AT&T and Bell Laboratories, where among his many accomplishments he shared a patent with his colleagues for touch tone technology. He retired in 1988 to serve Englewood and the surrounding near East side neighborhoods he loved so well. Carl began his neighborhood ministry with his friend, Ernie Medcalfe. The two of them knocked on doors and helped scores of families by fixing appliances, delivering furniture and food, and helping with household repairs.

Carl and Helen had two sons, Thomas E. Webb (wife, Wenela Reyes-Webb and son, Ian) of San Francisco, and Stephen H. Webb, deceased, (wife, Diane Timmerman and children, Barek, Asher, Teka and Tsehai Webb) of Brownsburg; and daughter, Charis (husband Brian Kaltenecker and son, Charles Stephen) of North Carolina. Carl loved all of his grandchildren and his new great-grandson very much. Survivors also include his beloved wife, Helen, who was his partner in their lifetime of devotion to faith and family. Also surviving is his dear sister, Roberta Simpson and her husband, Ted of Port Angeles, WA. Many nieces and nephews and extended family members also survive to cherish his memory.

“ I am so sorry to (just today) hear of Carl's passing. My dad died when I was four, and Carl was one of his best friends, so I got to know Carl and got a chance to sense the type of person my dad was through his choice of friends. I always enjoyed getting together with the Webbs -- whether it was to see Steve do 100 push-ups or Tom telling about his Peace Corps experience while mistakenly leaving the lens cap on his camera the whole time. We had many fun times together in our childhood. Carl had a great sense of humor that we all enjoyed! We will miss him. Tim Yarling's son Tim

“Helen -- we are heartbroken for you and your family. It was so good to see both you and Carl at Mother's visitation last May. His was a Christian witness walked every day. Some of my earliest memories of Englewood are of Carl riding herd on me and Jim Aldrich. No sadness for Carl now, but we send our deepest sympathies to you/your family.

“Helen, My heart is full knowing the grief you are experiencing just now. You and Carl were a huge part of the 17 years that we spent pastoring with you at Englewood. And good times spent at Christmas and other get togethers. His fight with his health is over and I know that God has said to him.. "well done thou good and faithful servant." May God's comfort be your strength. Love from Beth Laue
