“ So many fond memories with Carol and Jim, we met though my ex-husband he was a jerk in other ways, but he scored with our introduction. Jim and the EXI were involved in racing and motor building. Jim was helpful so much, but the greatest help , but the greatest was our over 50 years of friendship. Hot dogs with chopped onions and horseradish, shopping with 6 kids, one long fast trip to Muncie to delver a helmet, with a speeding ticket.... oops so much, so many memories. Sure will miss you my number one bestie

“ Carol was an un-biological grandma. She was there when I was having personal life problems. She let me move in with her and Angela temporarily. Grandma Carol never knew a stranger. She loved making crochet blankets for everyone, anywhere, any time. Grandma Carol loved accounting. That women could whip math numbers like no one! She is loved by many, and she will be deeply and forever missed.
