“ The first time I set eyes on Carol was not at Howe where we were both Seniors. It was sitting next to each other in the outer office to be interviewed to become telephone operators. There she was in beautiful high heels, a matching suit and matching pill box hat. And there I was in my scruffy tennis shoes with rolled down bobby socks and old skirt and blouse. But we hit it off and gave Indiana Bell a tough time every time they had us go to the union stewards office to try and talk us into parting with some of our hard earned $1.10 per hour salary every single month. A few years ago Carol found a picture of phone operators where unbeknownst to me I was in the pic and she sent it to me. Carol was THE best babysitter we ever had. She loved my two girls so much and could hardly wait to become a mom. She was meant to be a mom and loved her children with an unmatched passion. She and Ron watched over and gave their kids everything all kids could ever want. A part of her died when Grant did and now I know she has joined him and is safe. Will miss her indomitable spirit and her love.
