“ Carol was always so fun and full of life. She organized games for us kids at the Memorial Day get together. I remember her throaty laugh while playing cards with my Dad Joe and her other brothers and sisters. I remember the time she showed my sister and me her poster of Paul Newman and how she thought he was so dreamy. I know her passing near Mothers Day will be hard but she will always be with you. I can only imagine the card game she is in with Joe, Jerry, Mark, Joyce and so many others. It'll be a party!

“ So many memories to hold close and cherish of this fun loving soul. We shared in many dinner dates, movie nights, and even spent my 21 birthday in Vegas. Throughout the many years she showed me how to live life to the fullest and love with all you have. This lady, my Meme was one strong woman who instilled in us all the importance of hard work and to play even harder. I'll always cherish our Christmas eve tradition and her great love of BINGO!
