“ To few visits to Indianapolis to visit but Carole (and Ann) made them so fabulous and fun. Being able to stay with Aunt Esther and the "big" kids was a whole different world for us little country bumpkins. Swimming, ordering pizza late at night babysitting for Katie, boating, family reunions at Ben's, making lemonade at Grandpa's, complete with mass at Little Flower on Sunday. I even rec'd communion there a bit prematurely. Yes I have confessed it. I am devastated I will be unable to come back. Bless you all. Judy Handley and Family

“ Carol gave both my husband & myself communion this past Sunday @ the 8:30am Mas, as she often did. She was such an inspiration to us. Her strong faith encouraged us to stay strong & turn the hard stuff over to God. She was a steadfast Catholic which encouraged us to be true to our faith. We are going to miss her. May she rest in peace!
