“ I remember Carol as a sweet and smiling classmate on our journey through the Monticello school system. I am sorry to learn of her suffering from dementia and take comfort that she is now at the next level in great shape.

My sympathies and condolences to the Sharp family.

“Oops! Lost my memories.
Amy & Neil, I won't start over in case it pop up after I send this part.
This is Martha Hagler, this photo was when your Mom was living on South 12th Street.
Your Mom was well loved by all. The last time we saw each other was at the restaurant/hardware store on No. E & 10th St. I was in Richmond visiting with Janet Trimble, who your Mom met that day.
Carol helped my Dad as well, Jack Cromwell @21 No. 16th. They had met when Dad was at my house and Carol lived next door.
He enjoyed her company. A lot of memories are coming to me, it was a great life we lived.
I can see Carol was failing, but she always looked the same...great genes. 😊 May God continue to bless your families at this time. I remember her fondly.
