Roberta will always be remembered as a loving, Christian lady by each member of our family! My children, seen in this picture, grew up in her Sunday School class. Our favorite holiday with the Bromleys was Easter. They always brought palm leaves for the children to wave sound the sanctuary of Barnett Chapel.

“ My favorite memory of Mrs. Bromley is her sharing the love of Jesus with the children of the church. She encouraged all the children to learn about the Bible. My children learned the books of the Bible at a very young age because of her encouragement and love and patience. She made being a member of the 66 club a goal for them that they wanted to achieve. She made each child feel special. She will never be forgotten.
