“ Sue was my cousin, the daughter of my Dads sister. Here it is four years later and I am just finding out about her passing. Last time I saw Sue was around 1960 in Fresno California. I'll never forget that day as she scolded me for talking back to my mother during a argument. I took it to heart and never did that again. I wish I had know her more in her later years but destine did no allow. She was a great lady even in her teen years.

“ We were so saddened to hear of Sue's passing. We know she is where she lived to be but that certainly leaves a huge void here. Our love and prayers go to Charles and the girls who will be feeling this great loss more than anyone. We will continue to remember them and the family in the coming days and weeks in prayers as this reality sets in. Much love! She was a true Christian lady!
