

Carolyn J. Crossland

April 20, 2014

Carolyn J. Crossland, 90, of Indianapolis, passed away on Easter Sunday, 2014. She was born August 29, 1923 to the late Thomas Earl and Bertha Kay Miller. Carolyn married Frank E. Crossland, and was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She was active in all of her children's school and athletic activities and their biggest cheerleader.

Visitation will be Friday, April 25, 2014 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 2:30 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St.

Carolyn is survived by her children, Lana Zeyen (David), Dianna Broecker (Joseph) and Frank T. Crossland (Betty); sisters, Phyllis J. Logsdon and Evelyn Fulkerson; 11 grandchildren; and 23 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Sue Matthews; and a brother, Thomas E. Miller, preceded her in death.

The family would especially like to thank the staff at Westminster Village North for their wonderful care and compassion.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

“ Dianna - Sorry I won't be able to come to the calling but I wanted to let you know my thoughts are with you and your family. I remember so well coming to your house many, many times when we were young and in grade school. I thought your mother was beautiful. Looks like she was still a nice looking lady. Susie

“ *Dianna
We pray for you and your family at this difficult time but your memories for this beautiful lady will last forever. You can also have comfort that she and the risen Christ ascended to heaven together. Peace be with you.*

“Mrs. Crossland and family, This precious lady will be dearly missed by many of her children's friends. She was always most gracious and caring for her own family but she would treat others in the same manner. She left us on the most blessed day and I feel will be watching over all of us until we meet again. Bless you, Mrs. Crossland for all the kindness you showed me during my formative years.
