“ I love you Carolyn and will miss you dearly. To me you were my second mother, my best friend always, an excellent teacher, a great neighbor, and the sweetest most loving person. I knew. You taught me to knit, and helped me to have better self-esteem. You were my babysitter when I was 12 yrs. Old.....always made the best lunches, and gave me sore throat lozenges when my throat was sore. You always had a sense of humor. You sent me $ 10.00 when my birthday came around, and most of all. You told me Bible verses."For God gave his only-begotten Son...that whoever believes in Him shall have everlasting life. " I am hurting. Carolyn.... I can't write to you anymore, I hope you got my last letter to you.. I wish more people could known you....especially my family and friends. Mom loved you and you know I do. I believe that the Lord has taken you to be with Him. I know you and Bill will be together again. Please look for my precious Moses....you know what happened. I believe there will be someone to take good care of little Sammy. I'm happy that you did not suffer and that you're not suffering any of the earthly pains. That we go through. Love you and will never forget you. Pamela Spencer

“ So sad to learn of Mrs. Foshee's passing. She was incredibly kind to me through the years when I would see her. She always shared her love of Jesus (and her cats Abigail and Sammy) with me. I will truly miss seeing her in her bright pink jacket and look forward to seeing her again one day. I truly value her friendship and will miss her very much. My condolences to her family as they mourn the loss of such a vibrant and loving woman.
