“ Cecelia was a friend of mine thru the photo venture camera club at the Indianapolis Art Center. I visited her at her home several times and remember going to an antique show with her at the fairgrounds. She was a very nice person and I am very upset by her senseless death. RIP Cecelia.

She was a very generous person donating both her time and money to various charitable organizations. It was a shock to learn how she passed. Thank you for your kind words.

“ So sad to learn of Cecelia’s death. I worked with her at the ISDH. I’m sorry to have missed her services, but only found out on 2-27-22. She was a beautiful person, she was very dedicated to her work.

“ Aunt Cecelia (as kids we called her Mikey because part of her name was Michelle and it was easier) was quiet, generous, artistic and intelligent. She was always learning. She supported many charitable causes, some with her money and some with her time. She helped care for cats wandering in her neighborhood, cared for the environment. She will be missed.
