“ Mr. Havens was my first music instructor at Eastridge Elementary School in Warren Township. I played trombone. He was the most patient man I can remember! I stuck with it for years, playing in the Boy Scout Band which took us on summer tours all over the U.S. I played in high school band, orchestra, and stage band, becoming a real fan of big band music. I played in a big dance band with another of his students for many years, even through college and after. I became a teacher myself. I always wanted to make a difference in my students' lives. Mr. Havens certainly did that for me. I can't imagine my life without the joy of the music he first brought to me. I'm sure he knows that. God bless.
