

Charles P. Adams

September 28, 1927 - August 12, 2008

Charles Perry Adams, 80, of Indianapolis, passed away August 12, 2008. He is survived by his beloved wife of 50 years, Collene Moseley Adams; their daughters, Beth Adams of New Orleans and Charla Adams of Indianapolis, and his brother Robert Adams (Evelyn) of Roanoke, VA. He cherished time with his family. He is predeceased by his parents, Frank and Grace Adams and his brother Kenneth. A native of Laurens, South Carolina, Charles served in the United States Navy. Charles retired as a Project Manager from Huber, Hunt & Nichols after a 33 year career. His career in construction extended over 40 years, moving Charles and his family to nine states and to many cities. He has been a resident of Indianapolis for 30 continuous years, forming many lasting friendships along the way. In retirement, Charles exercised his passion for golf playing the public courses of the City regularly as a member of SAHM Senior League. Along with his wife, he was a member of Castleton United Methodist Church. He appreciated the prayers and support of the ministers and members of the congregation, including the Variety Bunch during his recent illness. A service will be held at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., August 15, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. Visitation will precede the service from 12:00 p.m. until 2:00 p.m. A graveside service will be held at the Moseley Cemetery in Uvalda, GA. Donations may be made to the charity of your choice. Arrangements are being entrusted to Shirley Brothers Mortuaries of Indianapolis, and Miles Funeral Home in Hazelhurst, Georgia www.milesfuneralhome@bellsouth.net.
