

Charles Raymond Case

September 11, 1932 - April 30, 2025

Charles Raymond Case, 92, Indianapolis, passed away April 30, 2025, at Westminster Village North. He was born September 11, 1932 in Rockport, Indiana. Charles served in the U.S. Air Force from August 26, 1953 to September 26, 1955. He then attended Lane Technical Institute where he majored in drafting. Charles worked at ITT Technical Institute in Indianapolis as an instructor and administrator. He was active in church and was an Elder at New Hope Presbyterian Church where he sang in the choir. Charles was a self-taught pianist who loved to sing, write poetry, paint, and build. He enjoyed spending time with family, friends, and neighbors. Charles learned to fly remote control airplanes and play Wii Bowling with his buddies at Westminster Village North and was a contributing member of the community. He had a great love of cars and vanilla bean ice cream. Charles will be missed.

Thank you, David.

Laura Tupman - May 05, 2025 at 01:17 PM

My sympathy to Charlene and all Charlie's family and to his sisters Anna, Mary, and Nancy. I enjoyed some good times with them when we were kids, then Charlie was my high school classmate and we've kept in touch thru the years. He was a great guy with so many talents and good at everything he did. He will be missed by many. May God bless you all.
