“ Hello, I am Theresa (Nunnally) Orlowski as he would call me at our work center, "Junior." I have so many fond memories of Charlie. He would always share his homegrown tomatoes with me when I'd come in for lunch and some to even take home to enjoy. Then out of nowhere even right down to a few days ago hearing some of the Halloween songs over a PA system at a store instantly made me think of him. He would make me so many mixed CDs of songs to listen to. That was how we connected, he was like a dad without being the dad, annoying, goofy, silly but knew how to look out for me. I didn't want to believe he was gone, until I saw this obituary. And now, it's hitting me harder than I thought possible. Just know that there's a legacy in this man's smile, orneriness, goofy, good-hearted man in all of those who had a pleasure to know such a beautiful gem. Fly high, fly wild, fly free now Charlie. Until we meet again, may you find the peace and reprieve you been needing. Amen.
