“ Chuck was super excited at the birth of his first grandchild (Devoren). Now at the time Daniel and I lived off Manhattan Street on Wilson Place. (yes it was funny Gilson on Wilson).

Now Chuck lived over in between

Laskey and Alexis off Lewis. Now that was a distance.....when I got up and told Daniel we have to leave, I was in labor, no stops between upstairs and downstairs.....who do you think was at the bottom of the steps but CHUCK GILSON....I swear he flew like a crow to get to our house....

Now at the hospital, you usually went into the labor room, then delivery room, then recovery room. I did all that, but on my way to the recovery room was a small window that had this VERY PROUD FACE of one CHUCK GILSON smiling from ear to ear at the birth of his first grandchild (Devoren) looking at us.

And to this day 45 years later, still she put a smile on his face.....for Devoren was Grandpa Gilson's first love but not his last, for more grandchildren followed.
